It's so difficult to look chic at the beach when you're trying to shield your precious complexion from the sun. That's why you need to rush right out and get yourself a couple (or three, or four) of fashionable sun hats from Physician Endorsed, the company that combines sun protection and style in an assortment of fun styles and tempting colors - cotton candy, cactus and cafe' au lait, to name a few. And while you're at it, gift your favorite sun worshipper with the Beach Lover's Survival Kit: a Capri hat in Bright White (UPF 50+), sunglasses (UPF 400), pink floral microfiber travel bags for the hat and glasses, a 5-oz. bottle of Blue Lizard sunscreen, a disposable camera and a fuchsia mesh beach bag.
